

Stable Relationships Calm to Learn Training

Stable Relationships is an organisation that provides creative and equine based programmes to children, young people, and the adults who live and work with them. We also provide training relating to education, well being, and equine facilitated learning.

This training does not involve horses. It is usually run as training for a whole school staff. It is suitable for anyone with an interest in education, and most suitable for those working within the education sector.

Who are the tutors?

Debbie Woolfe is a qualified teacher who has spent over 10 years, as an inclusion specialist, teaching in special schools and pupil referral units. Her previous role was as a teacher advisor for looked after children in Wolverhampton.

Sarah Westwood is a highly experienced percussionist who has been teaching West African drumming in schools for over 20 years. She also uses gongs and meditation techniques to promote well being and calm, within her teaching.

This Course Involves:

- An introduction into the theoretical knowledge, relating to brain development, and learning that our work is based on.
- Many practical activities that can be directly transferred to use with children and young people
- Self Awareness activities designed to help attendees reflect on their own practice
- Discussion around class and school strategies that could be utilised for different learners and situations.

Location: Telford Equestrian Centre, Granville Road, Donnington, Telford TF27QG

Cost: £350+travel expenses

Times: TBC at your convenience

Other: This course lasts approx 3 hrs. It requires a certain level of self awareness which staff should be aware of before attending.

To book a place please contact Debbie

Email: contact@stable-relationships.com

Tel: 07866514106

Web: www.stable-relationships.com